

Viewing the Scrimgeour Clan Guestbook

Latest messages:-

From: Kirsten Scrimgeour Nash
Date: Wed Sep 4 19:23:45 2013
URL: khnash@hotmail.com
Message: North Yorkshire

I was wondering if any one could help. I am after some Scrimgeour tartan ribbon but can't seem to find it anywhere. I would love to add it to my future son's pram blanket as not only will it go lovely with my new pram but I want to have a bit of my family name always with my new son. Many thanks x

From: Kay Walker
Date: Wed May 1 02:43:08 2013
URL: kay.walkeratinternode.on.net

Message: I live in South Australia, born New Zealand. I'm connected to Scrimgeours via Grays in New Zealand. My blood is more McGregor from Glenquach, Perthshire. I have been trying to sort out which Scrimgeours in New Zealand came from where and have whittled it down to 3 sources. Happy hunting to you too!

From: Stan
Date: Tue Apr 23 08:49:50 2013
URL: <http://www.lux4home.com>

Message: Interesting article. Overall, I had no idea about all this. It is a pity that there are no comments. We are happy we can talk about it. But I would recommend to a friend

From: Paul Baxter
Date: Fri Apr 12 16:42:19 2013
URL: pbc2 at btinternet.com

Message: Aldwick
 Bognor Regis
 West Sussex

Does anyone have any information about Maud Scrimgeour, author of a book called The Don and the Dancer. It was published in 1907 by Thomas Nelson and sons, a copy of which I have just managed to purchase. It is the story of a Dartmoor pony. I am researching the branch of the Scrimgeour stockbroker family who were active in the area of Stedham, West Sussex. I am not sure whether author Maud Scrimgeour is the same person as Maud Scrimgeour, daughter of Alexander Scrimgeour and sister of John, Ethel and Elizabeth. I am not a relative but have an interest in local history and particularly in the philanthropic work of the Scrimgeours.

From: Valerie russell

Date: Mon Mar 11 21:16:14 2013

URL: valerie.russell762@btinternet.com

Message: Hampshire

Just adding to my last email My Grandfather {John's} father was William and he was married to Betsy.

His sister , Isabella married Hugh Colquhoun and she lived in Sonoma California. He spent a lot of time at sea.

From: Valerie Russell

Date: Mon Mar 11 19:59:09 2013

URL: valerie.russell762@btinternet.com

Message: Hampshire

Could anyone help me find out more about my family?

My mother was Irene Scrymgeour and her father John Scrymgeour. His siblings were ,Mary, Kate, William, Colin, Matthew and Bessie. Before that it was, Donald, John, Isaballa, Matthew, William, James, Alexander, Robert, and Archibald.

I know a lot of them went to Canada.

From: Judy Shafer

Date: Thu Jan 31 19:42:43 2013

URL: jshaferatrochester.rr.com

Message: Rochester, NY - My grandfather was William Albert Scrymgeour; his brother was Colin, sisters Doris and Mary. I understand through my late grandmother, Ruth DeForest Scrymgeour, that my great-grandfather came from Scotland with his brother. The brother stayed in Canada and my great-grandfather settled in Rochester. My grandmother always said our ancestors were standard bearers. I'm just starting to dig into this. This website is great. Thanks.

From: Ian Scrimgeour

Date: Fri Sep 21 09:46:15 2012

URL: ianscrim1@gmail.com

Message: Cape Town - South Africa

The website is a great means to stay in contact with your roots and learn about other people having issues with the spelling of your last name. For most of my school career I was called scrumhalf, because it was too difficult for the Afrikaans population.

Just a general inquiry; do all Scrimgeour's really enjoy festivities, because I can't seem to get enough? Must be something in the blood... Really looking forward to attending a clan gathering!!!

From: Valerie Russell
Date: Fri Sep 14 19:41:33 2012
URL: valerie.russell762atbtinternet.com
Message: Hampshire
England

I have just started to research my Mothers family.
My Grandfather was John Scrymgour married to Adelaide Rose Floyd in 1921. I have managed to trace my Scrymgours back to about 1700 but not the Floyds.
My Mother was Irene.
If any one knows anything about my family please e-mail me,
Thank You, Valere

From: Nicholas Mooney
Date: Thu Aug 9 17:47:30 2012
URL: ctx1769@sky.com
Message: Manchester

My great grandmother was a scrimgeour and I was told by my mother that the family had once carried the royal standard of scotland. I did not discover the source of this until my wife started looking at my mothers side of the family and the history that came with it. Amazing :)

From: Gene A. Scrimshire
Date: Mon Jul 16 13:03:39 2012
URL: softtail77@hotmail.com
Message: Branson, Missouri The first person to change the name from Carron to Skrymgeour kinda set the pace for the rest of us. Since then the name has been spelled a number of different ways over the centurys. I like the fact that in the last 15 years the clan has accepted the Scrim. The first time i checked the clan home page you were spelling the name Skrym and now your spelling it Scrim thanks for the acknowledgement: The willingness of decendants to change the spelling of their last name has been going on since the first Carron did it in the 12th or 13th century. Like father like son....It runs in the family.

From: Paul Scrymgeour Howieson
Date: Fri Jan 27 11:47:52 2012
URL: aap1013"at"bigpond.net.au
Message: Elizabeth Park South Australia Australia.Hello one and all Scrymgeour's from Aussie Land.I am currently researching my grandmother's line and need some help with her tree.Her name was Isabella Anderson Scrymgeour b1884 in Edinburgh Scotland. She had a sister Margaret (Maggie)Morgan Scrymgeour b1886 and 2 brothers Paul McConnachie Scrymgeour b 1881 and George Peterson Morgan (half brother born to her mother) Mary Ann Morgan before she married John Scrymgeour in 1878.George born in Banff all rest born in Edinburgh.Isabella migrated to Australia to be with her youngest son (James Howieson)my father and she died in Victoria in 1977.I know John was a Blacksmith as was his father Peter Scrymgeour. john and his 8 siblings were born in Blackford Perthshire area and mother was Ann McNab from Comrie Perthshire. This is where things get a little sketchy. Can find no death for Ann McNab nor a birth record for Peter Scymgeour but on his death cert is says parents are Donald Scrymgeour and Agnes Brodie/Brody.The only record I can find is of children being bapt in logierait (where he came from according to census records) is to a Donald Scrimgeor and Ann Brodie/Brody with no Peter b1796 or George b1812 (found on ancestry.com.with same parents:Donald Scrymgeour and Agnes Brodie).WHAT AM I DOING WRONG!!!.Can someone give me any idea what to do next.I have loved reading all the messages think this is great job your doing and thanks for allowing me the time and space. Cheers Paul Scrymgeour Howieson.

ps One My Gransons has SCRYMGEOUR for his 2nd name and WE ARE VERY PROUD Born 2010

From: Dawn Scotting
Date: Fri Dec 2 02:06:13 2011
URL: pandora@kc.net.nz
Message: Waitakere, New Zealand

I've recently been doing a bit of research on the Scrymgeour line in my family tree and have posted what I've found to my blog if anyone is interested:-
<http://myfamilytreeresearch-dawn.blogspot.com/>
 I've read through all of the Skirmisher mags and this guestbook but didn't find much on the line I'm interested in apart from some contention about the birth/baptism of his brother Peter. The earliest I can go back to is Peter Scrimger of 'Hellhole/Halhole' in Perthshire, he had a son named James baptised at Caputh in 1765. Two generations later Peter's grandson, John Bisset Scrymgeour, migrated to New Zealand in 1860 with his wife, six sons & one daughter. Would love to hear from anyone connected to this line or if you can help me go back even further.
 Cheers....Dawn

From: T Phord
Date: Tue Nov 29 03:43:33 2011
URL: hphord@yahoo.com
Message: Vernon, British Columbia, Canada
 No relation to me but I wanted to reunite her with her

Clan! (I don't think they had Children)
JEMIMA ALLAN SCRIMGEOUR b. 1884 Cottown Perthshire
Scotland (JAMES ALLAN, JESSIE SCRIMEGEOUR)
m. ANDREW FERRIER RANKINE 1912 British Columbia Canada
d. December 16 1945 Vernon BC Canada
<https://familysearch.org/pal:/MM9.1.1/JD8V-NX8>
BC Vital Event Death Registration Number: 1945-09-672991

From: Mitchell Scrimgeour

Date: Thu Nov 24 14:40:30 2011

URL: ukmitch "at" hotmai.com

Message: I live in England thankfully making trips to Scotland a lot easier.

Ever since I was young I have been interested in History, especially my family history and this site adds to my curiosity and reading about Scrimgeour history really does fill me with pride.

Also if anyone could help, I am having trouble emailing the secretary, I am not a computer whiz and have been trying to email secretary "at" scrimgeourclan.org.uk and the message just bounces back. Thanks

From: Brenda Cooper

Date: Mon Nov 7 11:18:55 2011

URL: Brennie1946atgmail.com

Message: Sydney, Australia

Would love some info on my grandfather Robert Scrimgeour. He and his brother Dave left Dundee for Australia approx. 1880 bound for Australia. Apparently other family members headed for Canada. He married Lydia, had 3 children May, Dorothy & Robert (my father).
A great site. Cheers

From: David Shumaker

Date: Fri Oct 14 19:39:45 2011

URL: bigshuatcomcast.net

Message: Mobile, Alabama

Trying to nail down Scots heritage and lineage, wondering if "Scrimgeour" is where "Shumaker" came from; the name was brought from Scotland in early 1700's to America.
Fascinating stuff on this website!

From: Lorena Loubsky

Date: Tue Oct 4 18:36:00 2011

URL: lloubskylonergan@netzero.com

Message: Massachusetts, USA

Hallo, I am researching Eliza Thomas Jacka who is connected to your tree along the way. If anyone has found her father's name, would love to exchange info. I know her story, mostly, from when she was born - but the Jacka-Dobb descendants I've connected with didn't know her dad's name/story. Her mom later married William James Dobb and Eliza married her step-brother John - her grandmother emigrated with many siblings to the UP of Michigan. All the best! Lorena

From: Patrick
Date: Mon Sep 12 15:53:14 2011
URL: pat.haylock@hotmail.com
Message: Johannesburg. South Africa

I am the grandson of Ewing Scrimgeour. I have been intrigued to discover and read up the origins of the Scrimgeour clan. It will take some time to unravel but my maternal grandfather arrived in South Africa from Scotland early in the 20th century.

From: Jay Raley
Date: Mon Jul 18 23:21:35 2011
URL: jpraley@gmail.com
Message: Texas, USA - Just wanted to say that while researching all the various trees in my family, I came across the Scrimgeour lines through which it starts with Magdalene (1588-1621) who is the daughter of John Scrimgeour (1570-1643) who in turn whose father is James (1540-1612). I find it interesting who I am connected with and glad to have found this website.

From: Val Tressler
Date: Thu Jun 2 11:08:43 2011
URL: bobvaltressleratxtra.co.nz
Message: Invercargill, New Zealand

Samuel Scrimgeour, New Plymouth - contact me, my grandmother was a Scrimgeour and came to New Zealand in 1922.

From: Samuel Scrimgeour
Date: Thu May 26 11:46:18 2011
URL: scrimzatlive.com
Message: New Plymouth, New Zealand....Love this site and would like to know if anyone has any history of the Scrimgeours that have migrated to New Zealand.

From: Craig Dwyer
Date: Sun Mar 6 02:57:58 2011
URL: craigd2009atlive.ca

Message: Stratford Ontario Canada

My wife and I are restoring Alexander Scrimgeour house in Stratford . He and his brother Dave came to Stratford in about 1845-1850 from Scotland. We have obtained a bit of history. He was married to a Grace Vanstone. I have the name of all 12 children. Am now searching for the whereabouts of these same children. Any info would be greatly appreciated. Thanks Craig

From: glen robert scrimgeour

Date: Wed Feb 9 03:42:18 2011

URL: glenscr@gmail.com

Message: south africa

From: Cale Scrimgeour

Date: Sat Feb 5 20:40:19 2011

URL: calecontracting"at"gmail.com

Message: I live in Perth Western Australia , would very much like to get in touch with any descendants of Colin Scrimgeour and Caroline Hardie. my great grand parents.

this is a very awesome site! thanks!

From: glen robert scrimgeour

Date: Sat Jan 22 02:43:21 2011

URL: glenecatvodamail.co.za

Message: 4 petrea street,
ester park,
kempton park,1619,
gauteng,
south africa

very interested in alexander carron's ancestors. is there a link to ireland?

From: Ashley Scrymgeour

Date: Sun Jan 9 13:38:00 2011

URL: zeldamaster22.as at gmail.com

Message: I live in Vancouver, Washington

I would love to know anything and everything about our history...my grandpa died before i could learn

From: david lee scrimger

Date: Thu Jan 6 01:23:57 2011

URL: fairjumper@yahoo.com

Message: iowa

just coasting by...I have recently produced our family history book "the Scrimger Family of Charles City,Iowa".

From: Greg Barron
Date: Fri Nov 26 01:15:51 2010
URL: sovereign.saint@gmail.com
Message: Cumming, Georgia, USA.

My 2nd g grandfather, James Ogilvy Barron had a daughter, Margaret Ogilvy Barron who married an Alexander Gloack in Dundee, Scotland. The line goes way back. Alexander Gloacks mother was Jean Scrimgeour b. abt 1799. Her father was James Scrimgeour

From: Joseph C Peak
Date: Mon Oct 11 11:10:31 2010
URL: peak_joey@yahoo.com
Message: OHIO USA when i pull up my stuff bout my familij thins name comes up Scrymgeour..

From: HELEN MELVILLE
Date: Sat Aug 14 17:24:16 2010
URL: hmelville85@hotmail.co.uk Message: perthshire scotland.
 I am searching for a duncan scrimgeour who we believe emigrated to canada. his father was william scrimgeour and his mother was janet reid they had 5 children. James married to ann mckenzie, twins elspeth and grizel and william and duncan. any information would be very helpful. this william was my 4th great grandfather.

From: Cameron George Scrimgeour
Date: Wed Jul 28 02:36:04 2010
URL: cam_scrimgeour@yahoo.ca
Message: Residing: Trenton, Ontario, Canada,
 Raised: Cambridge (Preston), Ontario,
 Born: Brantford, Ontario,
 Father: Barry Galbraith Scrimgeour,
 Grandfather: Frederick George Scrimgeour (brother to Elizabeth, aka "Bess")- Deceased.

Miss you Grandpa.

From: Donald Alexander Scrimger
Date: Wed Jul 21 19:50:22 2010
URL: dondre5000@gmail.com
Message: Charles City, Iowa. United States. Long line of Scrimger history here.

Glad to see the website has been updated!

From: R McGiveron
Date: Sun Jul 18 07:31:28 2010
URL: mcgiveronr@hotmail.com
Message: Queensland Australia Just found out we are part of the Clan Scrimgeour as well.

From: marina moolman
Date: Mon Jul 5 10:01:07 2010
URL: moolman.marina1atgmail.com
Message: Port Elizabeth, RSA

I Believe that I am related to Ann Dawes - my paternal great grandfather has exactly the same details.

From: Kelly E. Nelson
Date: Sat Jun 19 02:26:11 2010
URL: kellynelson@emeraldworld.biz
Message: Los Angeles - 6/18/2010

Hello All!

Like most of us I am looking for "connections". For your consideration:

My mother's mother's (of Washington DC) middle name was Scrimgeour (like many of her relatives) The name Scrimgeour meant so much to her - it was the last request she made to me before she died - to make sure at least one of my children had the middle name of Scrimgeour. I believe we are main liners as her grandmother, Clara Burt, was born in Carisbrooke Castle on the Isle of Wight circa 1820 - her mother's surname was Scrimgeour and they were members of the Society in England. Said to be descendants of a "Sir Alexander Scrimgeour", they taught music to the Royal Family during Queen Victoria's reign. Clara had a sister, Sara Burt, and a brother, William Abercrombie Burt. (all were also related to the noted general, "Sir Ralph Abercrombie".)

A number of relatives with the last name of "Barnes", from Long Island, New York are said to be descendants as well. Sara Scrimgeour Burt having married Polydore Barnes, a publisher in New York. (Now Barnes and Noble?)

Have fun kids! Enjoy your searches...

Regards,

Kelly E. Nelson
Los Angeles

From: Lisa Schnalzer-Missen

Date: Fri Apr 9 15:20:57 2010

URL: mokshabellydance@hotmail.com

Message: I live in Cobourg Ontario. Canada. My mother is Dianne Scrimgeour Schnalzer.
My grandparents were Gladys Pawson and Murray Scrimgeour. My great-grandparents were Lorne Scrimgeour and Emma Garner Lorne 1880-1973 was the youngest of Alexander Scrimgeour and Ann Miller's children. He was a well-known carpenter and contractor in Blyth, Ontario. Emma was president of the horticultural society, raised 7 children with Lorne and was a media reporter and correspondent. Both held positions on Town Council and the School Board.

Alexander Scrimgeour-my great-great grandfather 1824-1908 was the first person to be listed on the census in Scotland as his profession being piper. He and Ann came to Canada in 1856 to farm.

From: Eric

Date: Thu Apr 8 00:09:10 2010

URL: ericpw62@hotmail.com

Message: Victoria, Australia

I've been researching our family for some time now and although my heritage is Henderson and Morrison, I read with interest some of the earlier posts on this site that also have similar name connections.

My Scrimgeour connection is more "recent" when Mary Morrison (sister of my great grandfather John) married a Francis C Scrimgeour in Dundee 1919.

I believe there was a son George Allison Scrimgeour born around 1920 in Tibbermore, Perth.

Francis Scrimgeour was born 1899 in Perthshire (Ruthvenfield I think) to George Scrimgeour and Margaret Lessels (yet another name worth researching). Francis is noted as being a Marine Engineer and was divorced from Mary Morrison in 1929 (have sighted the RCE) and was not "heard of" again.

I've managed to trace back this Scrimgeour line to John Scrimgeour (born C1790) and Margaret Kidd (born 1788) who were married in St Martin/Tibbermore Perthshire.

They had, from what I can find so far, 4 children - Ann 1820, Janet 1822, George 1824 and Robert 1826.

I'd certainly be keen to hear from anyone that may have some additional information particularly regarding Francis (born 1899) and George (born 1920)

From: Jamie michael scrymgeour
Date: Tue Mar 16 02:04:40 2010
URL: Scruff3686"at"sky.com
Message: Fife

Hi all just a quick note to say how proud I am to be a scrymgeour. I never thought there was so many of us! For years my dad (James scrymgeour) has told me many a story bout ol Scotland and the scrymgeour life and finding this site will make him happy keep on going
THE SCRYMGEOURs!!!!

From: James Robert Scrimgeour
Date: Sat Mar 13 06:02:07 2010
URL: jim.scrimgeour@gmail.com

Message: I am the 3rd son of William Alexander Scrimgeour II - I live in Waconia MN - I have 2 brothers William Alexander Scrimgeour III and Richard Fredrick Scrimgeour as well as 2 sisters Laurie and Judy Scrimgeour - my grandfather was born in Scotland and he had a brother named James. We are the only Scrimgeours in MN -USA that I know of - I have 3 sons and a daughter to carry on our name.

GO SCRIMGEOURS!!!!!!!!!!!!!!

From: Emma Scrimgour
Date: Wed Mar 3 21:31:20 2010
URL: rotar_motor@hotmail.com
Message: New Zealand

Wow this is unreal! didnt know our family was so big!

From: Keith Scrimger
Date: Tue Feb 23 21:03:21 2010
URL: kscrimgeratshaw.ca
Message: Calgary, Alberta, Canada

Hi Graham:

Nice work on the new website. Thanks a lot.

From: Robert Scrimgeour
Date: Mon Nov 2 12:57:45 2009
URL: nutzz1982"at"yahoo.com
Message: Pietermaritzburg
KwaZulu-Natal
South Africa

I would love to know more about my heritage.

From: John Lewis Scrimiger Jr

Date: Sun Sep 27 18:56:57 2009

URL: jscrimy@yahoo.com

Message: I live in San Diego, Ca, USA. I am the son of "Jack" Scrimiger who is prominent in the photo of the San Diego clan gathering of 2000. I understand what a proud history the clan has and will be visiting Scotland next year. I would appreciate any help I can get in tracing my particular branch of our family. I know that Alexander Scrimgeour came to America in the early 1800's with his family and settled in Ohio. For any one who is interested, my father created a family tree on line. You can follow this link to his site:<http://familytreemaker.genealogy.com/users/s/c/r/John-L-Scrimiger/index.html>. I thank you for your time and consideration. I will be visiting this site often.

John

From: Ann Dawes

Date: Thu Sep 3 15:03:40 2009

URL: ukennyaticon.co.za

Message: South Africa
After a visit to Scotland and querying my Scrimgeour heritage, I found that my maternal great grandfather was one Robert Scrimgeour (he married Charlotte Page) and came to South Africa +-1900 with a Scottish regiment, I believe. Robert's parents were Donald Scrimgeour (a boat riveter somewhere in Scotland)and Agnes Watson. I find this fascinating and would love to learn more if anyone can get a handle on the flimsy information I have.

Ann Dawes

From: Kirsty AJ Wiseman

Date: Sun Aug 23 11:00:11 2009

URL: kajwiseman"a"hotmail.com

Message: Falkirk

My g'gandmother was Susan Scrimgeour, she married Lewis Allan Wiseman in 1892. Her father was James and he married Susan Orr in Paisley in 1862

From: Val Tressler

Date: Sat Aug 8 11:12:52 2009

URL: bobvaltressler"at"xtra.co.nz

Message: Invercargill, New Zealand

I am the grand daughter of Bella Scrimgeour, born in 1879 in Aberdeen. She was the daughter of James Scrimgeour (son of David Scrimgeour and Margaret Colquhoun) Neilston Renfrew. and Susana Orr (Beith, Ayreshire, Scotland) Perhaps someone recognises these names on their trees

From: Desmond Scrimgeour
Date: Tue Jul 21 03:49:22 2009
URL: dscrimgeour@pcc.govt.nz
Message: Otaki
New Zealand

Fantastic stuff, Expecially for decendants so far away from the original lands. Gives us a real insite. Thanks

From: Nina Hart
Date: Sun Jul 12 23:14:41 2009
URL: nina_hart@telus.net
Message: Langley, British Columbia,Canada
My great grandmother was Isabella Knight Scrymgeour, born in Scotland. Her parents were James Scrymgeour and Margaret Wright. Her siblings were David, Margaret, James and Samuel. Isabella married Richard Hendry and they left Greenock in the early 1870's for Newfoundland, Canada. One of their sons who was my grandfather was named James Scrimger Hendry. Any connections out there?
Thanks, Nina

From: Daniel Evans
Date: Sun May 31 12:19:09 2009
URL: danielatlive.com.au
Message: Port Macquarie Australia

Recently attended Wingham Scottish festival and started to explian to my son about our Scottish links. My mother was Patricia Scrimgeour anh grew up in Gunnadeh NSW. I seldomly see the Srimgeour name in Australia, so finding this site has been very educational. I hope to get to the UK to visit some family sites.

From: Matthew Scrimgeour
Date: Wed May 27 06:00:49 2009
URL: matt.scrimgeouratriotinto.com
Message: Pannawonica Northwest Western Australia

From: Peter King
Date: Wed Apr 1 09:45:30 2009
URL: christine.christine68@wanadoo.co.uk
Message: Good Morning,

I am son of the late Jean King married to Norman King
(Ipswich,Suffolk)nee Scrimgeour.
Nephew to Gordon & Ellen Scrimgeour(Scackleton Nr York)
I was recently on a Trip to Inveraray on the 18 Feb
09,with my wife and friends. We had occasion to drive to Oban for a day out,on our return we stopped a a lovely old
Kirk(Church) at Loch Awe.
A very interesting walkabout in St Conan,s Kirk(Loch Awe) found a brass wall plaque inside the front entrance on the left side. Reading the list of the late Servicemen that had died during the First & Second Great Wars, a name came to my attention:

This was of a Private Donald Scrimgeour of the 3rd RVVR
Black Watch.

This name has been of interest since I cannot find any history on the man who laid down his life for his country. I have been in touch with the Loch Awe Church Council but have no joy to date. I am an ex-serviceman and would appreciate any information into this brave mans live. Can anyone put any light on him please?

(I had put the wrong name of the Kirk in my original Text,apologise for the error)

In hope, thank you. Pete King

From: Peter King
Date: Wed Apr 1 09:35:47 2009
URL: christine.christine68atwanadoo.co.uk
Message: Barton Upon Humber.N.Lincs

Good Morning,
I am son of the late Jean King married to Norman King
(Ipswich,Suffolk)nee Scrimgeour.
Nephew to Gordon & Ellen Scrimgeour(Scackleton Nr York)
I was recently on a Trip to Inveraray on the 18 Feb
09,with my wife and friends. We had occasion to drive to Oban for a day out,on our return we stopped a a lovely old
Kirk(Church) at Loch Awe.
A very interesting walkabout in St Gelgin Kirk(Loch Awe) found a brass wall plaque inside the front entrance on the left side. Reading the list of the late Servicemen that had died during the First & Second Great Wars, a name came to my attention:

This was of a Private Donald Scrimgeour of the 3rd RVVR
Black Watch.

This name has been of interest since I cannot find any history on the man who laid down his life for his country. I have been in touch with the Loch Awe Church

Council but have no joy to date. I am an ex-serviceman and would appreciate any information into this brave mans live. Can anyone put any light on him please?

In hope, thank you. Pete King

From: Catherine Scrimshire Niemi
Date: Thu Mar 26 01:19:25 2009
URL: catherine_714atsympatico.ca

Message: I live in Canada
 I was born in Scotland to James Ambrose Scrimshire and Catherine Hope. Have 2 brothers James and Arthur. Started my research in 1986 and am still plodding along. Trevor Jensen of BC Canada and I were in contact many years ago and we exchanged Pictures and Information I wish you all well in your research
 Catherine Scrimshire Niemi

From: Jonathan Good
Date: Sat Mar 14 16:34:46 2009
URL: jwgood"at"dow.com
Message: Nottingham UK

My great great grandfather was an Alexander Scrimgeour listed in the 1901 English census as born around 1844 and giving as his place of birth Dundee Fofarshire Scotland. I found the site very interesting.

From: isabell mc nab
Date: Sun Mar 8 12:39:55 2009
URL: dizzymac51@hotmail.co.uk
Message: SCONE,PERTH,SCOTLAND after all these years just found this site.I am the second daughter of James & Phemie Scrimgeour I have three sisters Margaret Anne, Euphemia,& Tirina & two brothers Ano & Derrick. I still live in Scone as does Euphemia and the rest live not to far away.Sadly its 22yrs this month since we lost Dad and 2yrs for Mum but hey ho we still have a couple of young Scrimgeours coming up to keep the Scrimgeour name on going.So Hi to all ye other scrimgeours out there.

From: Janelle Scrimgeour
Date: Thu Mar 5 20:54:37 2009
URL: janellescrimgeour"at"gmail.com
Message: London, United Kingdom - originally South Africa

My name is Janelle Scrimgeour - eldest granddaughter of John and Flo Scrimgeour. Below is my cousin Robery Scrimgeour - hi cuz if you read this! John and Flo had 5 children - Ian, Bruce (my dad), Neil (Robbie's dad), Angus and Shannon. All but Angus live in South Africa, and Angus lives in Boston, USA. I've always wanted to know more about my family history, so I am really enjoying reading all of these messages.

From: Robert Charles Scrimgeour
Date: Mon Mar 2 08:24:55 2009
URL: nutzz1982atyahoo.com
Message: Richards Bay, Kwazulu Natal, South Africa

Hi.

Felt like checking up on my family history and found this site. How do I register?

From: c.scrimgeour
Date: Fri Feb 13 08:36:51 2009
URL: kinkthe.winkscrimat.hotmail.com
Message: i live in spain i have not met many scrimgeours exepct from my family it is so good to know that there are others.i am asking if the name scrimgeour is french for fencer of scotish for skirmesher,would be delighted to know.lots of love you sister across the pond.

From: martyn hill
Date: Sun Feb 8 10:23:49 2009
URL: marty.nd@hotmail.com
Message: i live in bournemouth, dorset, england,my mother`s name is martha scrymgeour,who has 2 brothers and one sister james andrew, maggie, all come form scotland glasgow,andrew had a son called lee scrymgeour, james had 2 sons called robert and david,my mum martha had me martyn also 2 daughters annette and jackie,maggie had about 7 children,very intrested to find out more of my family history,

From: Carol Shepherd
Date: Tue Feb 3 12:27:48 2009
URL: carolmshepherdathotmail.com
Message: I live in Windsor, Berkshire, England.
formally from north east England, maiden name was Scrimgour, Father was David Scrimgour and his father was David Scrimgour. I had one brother Anthony Scrimgour and three sisters Beryl, Christine & Susan(died 2005) My brother had three sons (three more Scrimgours) so the clan goes on. What was most interesting was seeing photo's of the clan and seeing the family resemblance to my father and brother in the men on the photo. Good site.
I send my good wishes to all the clan all over the world.

From: Bill Scrimgeour
Date: Tue Feb 3 12:04:52 2009
URL: billscrimgeour at yahoo.com
Message: Surrey England

My grandfather was William Arthur born in Liverpool and his elder brother was John - Jack - Scrimgeour was born 1868 in Dun, between Brechin and Montrose, Angus and who emigrated to the US around the turn of the century, married an American lady and was not heard of again. There were reports he had travelled to UK around the time of the Lusitania and he was rumoured to be on the ship when it went down although I can find no confirmation.

Can anyone help me with a line? Thanks

From: Alexander Scrymgeour Billyard
Date: Wed Jan 28 03:22:30 2009
URL: sandy"at"lochnesslinks.com
Message: Ridgeville, Ontario, Canada

Good info in this site. I'm just learning about my Mom's family name that I was given

From: James M. Scrimger
Date: Sat Dec 20 20:39:15 2008
URL: jscrimger42@gmail.com
Message: Grand Blanc, Michigan

My father and grandfather are also James Scrimger's. The spelling of our name was changed early in the 1940's from Scrimgeour. The family migrated to North Branch, Michigan from the Kitchner, Ontario, Canada about the time Michigan became a state. Before that, they came into the United States through Jametown, New York. I'm trying to trace the history to understand more about my "roots". I would appreciate any feedback that gets me there.

Also, there is another Scrimger family in the North Branch area that we are unable to find the "missing link". Help in that area is appreciated also.

Greaty enjoyed reviwing the website.

Jim

From: James M. Scrimger
Date: Sat Dec 20 20:29:33 2008
URL: jscrimger42@gmail.com
Message: Grand Blanc, Michigan

From: James Pakai
Date: Wed Nov 26 00:24:23 2008
URL: pakaicreativewood@gmail.com
Message: Hi I live in Wellington New Zealand.

My fathers name is James Scrimgeour, my grandfathers name is James Scrimgeour. I didn't know my father at all untill i turned 22 yrs old. he left my mother when I was 6 months old. but ever since I turned 22 I have kepted in contact with him allot. I changed my last name to my mothers maiden name, which is Pakai. as I didn't know anyone from my Scrimgeour side. and then when I did see my father at 22 I told him that I changed it to Pakai. he was upset of corse but he new why I did. he still truggles with it at times. but I said to my wife that I'm not chainging it back to make his fellings feel better. I changed it as I had know cantact from the Scrimgeour family so I had to do this. I want to thank this website as I wanted to have a good look at where I'm from, and other reasons as well. I look at the web site and I can see where I come from. it would be good to see all of it in person though as I love looking at the historical scriptures.

Thank you again, and look forward to seeing more of your web site again. keep up the good work.

James Pakai

From: Jeffery McElhaney
Date: Sat Nov 15 02:55:09 2008
URL: jaymac2007@hotmail.com
Message: Pope AFB NC Originally from Brookfield Missouri

Hello i was just researching my Name and it says that i am associated with this Clan.....I am just really want to know how i am associated and maybe if there someone i can talk to more about this thank you Jeff

From: Louise Scrymgeour
Date: Tue Nov 4 18:28:01 2008
URL: louisescrymgeour@hotmail.com
Message: Edinburgh

Daughter of David and Granddaugter of James, Used to hate my name as a child, and still sometimes get fed up spelling it!! But proud all the same!

From: Sean Golden
Date: Thu Oct 23 07:35:28 2008
URL: toxinburn@comcast.net
Message: Little Rock, Arkansas

Hello to all, I was on ancestry.com just looking around and it shows this to be the clan from which my name Golden originated from, if anyone has some further information to confirm this for me please email me @ toxinburn@comcast.net thanks.

From: Anne-Marie Scrimgeour
Date: Fri Oct 17 15:51:17 2008
URL: saffra@fsmail.net
Message: Dundee

Hello fellow Scrimgeours. I am Anne-Marie Scrimgeour, daughter of Larry Scrimgeour, granddaughter of John Scrimgeour, Dundee.
While researching the story of Grissel Jaffray, the last Witch to be burned in Dundee (November 1669), with a class of second year pupils in Dundee, I came across the name of a Minister, Henry Scrymgeour who she apparently fell foul of! Sharing his Surname I am interested to find out a little more about him but no success so far, can anyone help?

From: Jean Scrimgeour
Date: Thu Sep 4 23:54:16 2008
URL: Jeanscrim"at"hotmail.com
Message: My name is Jean Scrimgeour (brother Ian and sister Hazel), Daughter of John Scrimgeour (two sisters Helen and Jean) who is the son of Ian Scrimgeour (brother to Colin Scrimgeour and Mary Laurie) from Johannesburg.

We now live in Cape Town, have no contact or idea about where the rest of the family is or how we got to SA. There anybody out there that can help?

From: steve barr
Date: Tue Aug 12 22:15:08 2008
URL: seve-barr"at"hotmail.co.uk
Message: n.e england fantastic site, but after some research, the sept of barr is attached to srymgeour clan, is it possible someone could confirm this

From: Spencer Callahan
Date: Wed Jul 9 18:08:55 2008
URL: rebelrover@yahoo.com
Message: California

To the greatest clan of all!!

My Great Grandmother was a Scrymegour, spelt this way.

From: Jack Blair
Date: Tue Jul 1 22:25:54 2008
URL: j.j_blair_at_tiscali.co.uk
Message: Perth, Scotland

I note that the Clan Scrymgeour Gathering 2008 is to be held at Balmerino Abbey. This is one of the most appropriate venues given that the ancient chartularies of that Abbey are the source of some of the earliest records to be found of the Scrymgeour forebears.

In researching for my book "de Dundee – an early burgess family with Highland connections", the chartularies of Balmerino and the neighbouring Abbey of Lindores proved very rewarding, yielding references to Albert de Dundee (1180c-1245c), Gregory de Dundee (1210c-1270c) and Master Ralph de Dundee in the period 1230 – 1281.

Sir Ralph de Dundee(1260c-1307) was son to Sir Gregory le Long who most probably was son to Thomas de Dundee. It was Master Ralph who by marriage gained the lands of Glassary. His wife was the heiress of Gillascop MacGilchrist of Glassary – she was probably called Isabella, as that was the name of his widow in 1307. She was able to retain the barony of Dundee lands but the pro-English MacDougal's, in 1308, held the castle of Glassary for King Edward I. Their son John de Dundee was still a minor when his father died but later he was to regain Glassary and adopted the designation John de Glassary. In the patronymic Gaelic form he was Ian McMaster, his father, Ralph, having graduated a Master of Arts and sometime Clerk to King Alexander. John's son, Gilbert de Glassary retained a large estate in and around Dundee in Angus and Perthshire. Gilbert made over most of his estate to his daughter Agnes and her husband between 1364 and 1374 in a series of grants. Her husband Alexander Scrymgeour, "bannerman to the king" thus gained substantial estates in the Dundee area and in Argyll and the Scrymgeour family derived their coat of arms from the Dalriadic lion of the Glassary family.

With best wishes for the 2008 Clan gathering.

From: Cheryl Oliver
Date: Fri May 23 06:33:37 2008
URL: coli3761"at"bigpond.net.au
Message: Hillman,Western Australia

Hi my gran is a Scrimgeour (Betty) she was born 1925. She lives in Dundee has all her life. she married William Robb from Fife (I think it was) and had 3 children Dorothy (my mum),Janesa and Derrick.

I would like to find out more on my side as husbands family tree has been done and is really good to look back on.
Any help would be great as is your site
WELL DONE !!!!!!!

From: Sandra Schrimsher
Date: Mon Mar 17 23:38:23 2008
URL: sandysews2@gmail.com
Message: Alabama

I like your site. I always heard that my dads family were from Scotland or England or both.

From: Toby Scrimgeour
Date: Thu Feb 14 12:28:17 2008
URL: tobys"at"inet.net.au
Message: Hi all,

I live in Perth, Western Australia, son of Gregory David Scrimgeour, i was born 28/10/1984 and I have to say I enjoy reading up on family history and after researching this site I have found at about the many great things Scrimgeours have achieved and have an even greater sense of pride in carrying on the Scrimgeour name. I also plan to visit Scotland and see some of the history first hand. ps A great site.

From: Jacqueline Perry
Date: Mon Dec 10 02:47:08 2007
URL: japerry40@hotmail.com
Message: Virginia, USa

My Great Grandmother was Effie Scrimger Brown from the Northern Neck area of Virginia. She is from the lineage of James Scrimger settled in Montross in the 1700's. It is my greatest desire to visit Scotland soon and visit my home there.

From: Brian.S.Crawford
Date: Sat Nov 17 17:36:08 2007
URL: brian@littledean.fsbusiness.co.uk
Message: I Live in the Littledean in the Forest of Dean in Gloucestershire.

I was born in South Africa, My maternal grandfather John Scrimgeour was born in Crief 1875? son of a coal merchant. He and a brother Peter,who later went to Canada in 1915 or so.Worked in Johannesburg. Originaly he was a soldier with the Scottish Horse that went to South Africa 1901

From: Brian.S.Crawford
Date: Sat Nov 17 17:34:28 2007
URL: brian@littledean.fsbusiness.co.uk
Message: I Live in the Littledean in the Forest of Deam in Gloucestershire.

I was born in South Africa, My maternal grandfather John Scrimgeour was born in Crief 1875? son of a coal merchant. He and a brother Peter,who later went to Canada in 1915 or so.Worked in Johannesburg. Originaly he was a soldier with the Scottish Horse that went to South Africa 1901

From: margaret scrimgeour
Date: Sat Oct 27 17:18:06 2007
URL: at@hotmail.com
Message: Dundee Scotland

Married to Harry Scrimgeour, have two sons Stephen and David. Eldest son Stephen lives in the Netherlands and David still resides in Dundee.
Harrys Father was Henry and he had two Brothers John who lived in Canada who had a daughter named Donna, other Brother was Alexander who had three sons and a Daughter their names were Ronald,Derek,Paul and Lorraine. Have lost touch with them all.

From: Adam Scrimiger
Date: Thu Oct 4 20:54:49 2007
URL: scrymgeour at charter.net
Message: Morro Bay Califonia, U.S.

I'm just looking for family I don't know.

From: paul macpherson
Date: Sat Sep 29 19:41:21 2007
URL: creagdubh"at"yahoo.ca
Message: CORBEIL,ONTARIO CANADA.

Looking for family members of John Maxwell Scrimgeour,he was born on 12 january 1920 in Dundee Scotland and immigrated to Canada in 1946.His wife's name was Sadie and his daugther's name was Donna.

THANKS PAUL MACPHERSON,his grandson.
creagdubh1320@yahoo.ca

From: Bonnie Scrimgeour Bruccoleri
Date: Sat Sep 29 03:29:37 2007
URL: bonniebrucc@aol.com
Message: Dayton, NJ

From: Ellen Scrimger Gordon
Date: Sun Aug 26 14:38:48 2007
URL: lnquilt"at"aol.com

Message: Orlando, Florida, USA
My father, John Scrimger, passed away August 18, 2007. He was the son of James & Mabel Scrimgeour, grandson of John & Mahala Scrimgeour. He was born May 8, 1923, in North Branch, Michigan, and lived in Wayne, Michigan from his marriage in 1950 until his death. I returned home from his funeral to discover that my youngest son has a genealogy project for high school, which led me to an internet search and this clan site. I'm sure I'll be back.

From: Dominic Scrimger
Date: Fri Jun 22 04:43:52 2007
URL: dscrimger@hotmail.com
Message: Alberta Canada

What a find! This web site is awesome. I'm from the north east of England (just moved to Canada) If any one has any historic info on Scrimgers in that area, please share. I'm at a loss.

From: Rachel
Date: Wed Jun 20 18:10:06 2007
URL: littlescrim1@yahoo.co.uk
Message: hey. i live in Keswick, Cumbria.
i am the daughter of Derek Scrimgeour who was born in Killiecrankie, Perthshire.
just to say if any other Scrimgeours want to talk get in touch with me . :)

From: Ann Hammond
Date: Tue Jun 12 20:19:16 2007
URL: annlouise216"at"yahoo.com
Message: Farmington Utah
My line starts with Agnes Hendry Gloak came to Canada and her mother is Jean Scrymgeour married to James Gloak and her father is William Scrymgeour.

From: Steven Morris Scrimgeour
Date: Sat Jun 2 11:34:26 2007
URL: deadbugsinmypocket at Yahoo.com.au
Message: Born Dunedin, New Zealand, now living in Melbourne, Australia.
Son of Brian Raoul Scrimgeour, son of George Morris Scrimgeour.
Have a bonnie day all ye Scrimgeours!

From: sue anderson
Date: Fri Jun 1 20:34:43 2007
URL: s.anderson5113"at"ntlworld.com
Message: Glasgow, Scotland, UK

My maiden name is Scrymgeour and have recently traced back my family tree. My grandfather and his family all came from Islay and were fishermen and ferrymen (from Islay to Jura) I am very interested to hear from any relations in Nova Scotia, Canada and also in Madderty/ Muthill, Perthshire, Scotland area.

Your website is really good and informative. I would like to see the Earl of Dundee's family tree. I came across a lady in an old family tree that came from the Scrymgeour Clan, in an old library in Drum Castle near Aberdeen. Also saw a portrait of her and was shocked to see that she looked remarkably like me (scary or what!!) Have a great clan gathering and hope to go to the next one.

Sue

From: Laura Scrimgeour
Date: Fri Jun 1 04:25:59 2007
URL: lollies_002@hotmail.com
Message: Australia WA Bickley

Hi im a scrimgeour to i was looking here to find information about our sheild and what it looks like it helped me heaps

From: Cathy Geddes
Date: Thu May 31 06:39:18 2007
URL: cath_geddes"at"paradise.net.nz
Message: Dunedin, New Zealand.

I am the granddaughter of Henry Charles William Scrimgeour, Rangiora, New Zealand. Just passing on that Grandad passed away on May the 10th this year. He will be dearly missed.

From: michael
Date: Sun May 13 23:09:32 2007
URL: camaro_9263@yahoo.com
Message: Muskegon,Michigan

I am very interested in learning about my family history. My father (Michael Troy Sr) attended a family gathering a few years back in, i believe it was Lapeer, michigan and gave me a paper that had some of the history. I was amazed at what i read and i have been curious ever since. I am constantly finding and reading new things.

From: Lincoln Scrymgeour
Date: Tue Apr 24 16:48:26 2007
URL: lincolns"at"westnet.com.au

Message: Perth, Western Australia
I am very interested in maintaining contact with the Scrimgeour Clan and getting acquainted with my family heritage.

From: Lorraine Elliott
Date: Tue Feb 27 21:50:17 2007
URL: lorrainejelliott@hotmail.com

Message: Shepperton, Middlesex

My Great Grandmother was Maggie Scott Scrymgeour from Dundee. I didn't realise until today how many Scrimgeour's there are out there!!!

From: Jeff Paquette
Date: Thu Feb 22 22:02:51 2007
URL: camadka"at"comcast.net

Message: Nashua, New Hampshire - USA

I'm researching my Mother's heritage. Her Grandmother was Catherine Mary Scrymgeour, born in Dalkeith or Dundee, Scotland on March 3rd, 1887. Catherine's parents were Robert John Henry Scrymgeour (born dec 3rd, 1868, and named Viscount of Dunhope in 1941). Robert John Henry's wife was Amy Elizabeth Mason from High Kirk, Edinburgh Scotland.

Robert's parents were from Londenderry, Scotland, and I'm told that we trace back to Alexander Scrymgeour, and his father Colin Scrymgeour.

I'd like to know if you are familiar with any of these names in my family lineage, and if you might provide me more information. I'm wondering if we are distant relatives.

Although my last name is Paquette (for my father), I have a strong interest in learning about my mother's family. My wife and I are planning a vacation with our son Cameron, to Scotland, and it would be great if we could find locations that have significance to my family. So I'd like to be sure that we are of the same Genealogy.

From: Mary
Date: Tue Jan 23 21:41:37 2007
URL: mdall"at"sympatico.ca
Message: Canada

Raymond,
 I have tons of information concerning your James Sharp Scrimgeour I can trace it back to 1800. Could you provide me with more info about the Holman connection. I was wondering where the name Holman came from. There is a Holman Hunt Scrimgeour born 1874 in Dundee. My dad is 78 and was born in Dundee and his Grandmother was Agnes Scrimgeour. I'm positive that we are lost relatives.

From: Graham Scrimgeour
Date: Thu Jan 11 19:27:18 2007
URL: scrimgeourclan "at" bigfoot.com
Message: Edinburgh

To Raymond Scrimgeour.

Please can you send contact details for me to pass on to Jack Scrimgeour in Canada (our genealogy secretary).

Graham

From: Raymond Scrimgeour
Date: Sun Dec 31 01:48:49 2006
URL:
Message: Dunsborough, Western Australia

This is my first entry. I am 76 years of age and Have lived all of my life in WA. My father's name was James Sharp Scrimgeour and he was born in Dundee, Scotland in January around 1896. He moved to Perth, WA in his mid-teens with his brother, Norman and his sister, Emily.
 My grandfather's details are unknown to me as my grandmother re-married in Scotland and then came to Australia with her new husband, ...Schultz. Her maiden name was Holman.

My father James married Minnie Jane MacIntosh in Perth, WA and I am their only child.

Norman married Clarice... and had two children Ronald and Eunice. Eunice died as a child and Ron married Verna... and they had two adopted children. Ron also died some years ago.

Emily married Clem Hampton and had no children.

So I have very few relatives. On a luckier note, I married Bernice Sharp and had four children. I now have 12 grandchildren and 1 great-grandchild and another on the way.

It would be great to hear from anyone who knows extra details of my early family.

From: Nicola Scrimgeour

Date: Fri Sep 22 18:14:53 2006

URL: Nicola401@hotmail.co.uk

Message: I still live in Scotland. I just turned 17 and im really interested in my family history. I've never really spoken to another Scrimgeour that i dont know. There aren't that many of us but when i saw this website there are hundreds of us its strange how most of u live in America. "Dissipate" i thought i recognised that my gran had that up on her wall all the time before she died, Catherine Scrimgeour, she had about 9 kids including my father Brian Scrimgeour she died when i was about 6 but i can still remember her. Everyone calls my dad Scrimy so my little brother got landed with the name Scrimy Jnr haha he hates it. Know one believes me that Scrimgeour is scottish they all think its German for some reason. It would be good if u write back about some of the Scrimgeour history.

From: Prue Beck

Date: Thu Jun 22 05:40:58 2006

URL: beck1"a"bigpond.net.au

Message: I live in Geelong, Victoria, Australia.

I'm currently researching my great grandmother (and beyond), Agnes Scrimgeour, born in Blairgowrie, Scotland in 1841. She died in Ballarat, Victoria, Australia on 9.5.1905. She married Thomas Morgan Allan Watson, b. 14.8.1837 in Dundee. Her parents were William Scrimgeour and Agnes Stubbles/Staples. William was apparently an engineer. Can anyone help with information on William or Agnes (her parents) or the best way to go from here? Thanks for a terrific website. Prue

From: Gordon Francis Scrimgeour Brink

Date: Sun Jun 18 18:55:15 2006
URL: gordbrink@hotmail.com
Message: Calgary, Alberta Canada
First time visiting site, just saying Hi to all you scrim's

From: USA
Date: Sun Jun 18 07:36:04 2006
URL: <http://50cent.web-locations.com>
Message: I like your site because of the very nice posts you have

From: Robyn Young (nee Scrimgeour)
Date: Sun May 14 02:42:06 2006
URL: robyn.young@paradise.net.nz
Message: Pukerau, Southland, New Zealand

Thank goodness for technology - brother Eddie put me onto this site, I am trying to collate our family tree, father Dennis Coyle Scrimgeour born 18.12.1911 in Blythe Northumberland, came out to New Zealand as a flockhouse boy aged 15, his father Denis Coyle Scrimgeour killed 30.12.1915, son of James and Mary Jane Coyle Scrimgeour, County Durham, husband of Isabella Banks (formally Scrimgeour), Blyth, Northumberland. Any links, contacts emails etc most appreciated. I am building my tree at <http://www.genesreunited.co.nz/tree.asp>

Warm regards to you all and thanks to those that built this web site, awesome initiative. :-)

From: Eddie (Edward)Scrimgeour
Date: Fri May 12 11:13:39 2006
URL: lized@optusnet.com.au
Message: Ipswich Queensland Australia but a Kiwi through and through.

First time visitor to this site. Wont be the last time. Sending site adress to other members of my family.

From: Simon Schrimsher
Date: Fri May 5 15:44:13 2006
URL: simon.a.schrimsheratsmithbarney.com
Message: Live in Lake Forest, Orange County, California.

Been researching schrimsher european history. Enjoyed your website.

From: Joy Barefoot

Date: Fri May 5 01:07:09 2006

URL: barefootnvirginia@charter.net

Message: Bedford, Virginia, USA

My ancestral name is Schrimsher but hadn't much luck in searching for that on your site. Some descendents spell their name Scrimiger and all sorts of other ways. Truly am searching a link from James Schrimsher of 1819 Kentucky, USA, to his father who is believed to be a James (possibly Early/Earley) Schrimsher. Any leads most appreciated. Thanks. Joy

From: Brenda Cooper nee Scrimgeour

Date: Fri Apr 28 22:40:17 2006

URL: brenda_cooper"at"yahoo.com

Message:

Sydney, Australia

My mother Joyce Scrimgeour and I were so pleased to receive 'the Skirmisher" recently - what interesting reading. My father was Robert Scrimgeour as was his father who was born in Dundee. He came to Oz with his brother David in the late 1800's. Robert married my grand mother Lydia Georgina Granville Price (what a name). They had 3 children May, Dorothy and Robert (my father). All are now deceased. Love to hear from any relatives out there.

From: Rachel Cooper

Date: Fri Apr 7 15:21:40 2006

URL: rachelvcooper@hotmail.com

Message: Jersey

I am due to marry Jersey's one and only Scrimger on 1 July 2006. He comes from Glasgow. There are a couple of Scrimgeour's here too, but only one with my fiancee's spelling.

We managed to track down the tartan and he will be marrying in it. There will be quite a few tartans on show on the wedding day - McVeigh, Rae and Livingstone to name just a few. It promises to be quite a colourful event.

From: jared scrimgeour

Date: Fri Mar 31 18:48:32 2006

URL: pattomj@hotmail.com.

Message: mount isa, queensland, australia.

GO THE ALLBLACKS!!!!

From: Alexander Scrimgeour
Date: Fri Mar 31 11:54:12 2006
URL: alexander_scrimgeour@hotmail.com
Message: Glasgow, Scotland

Great site, very interesting to learn about the family history.

From: Kyle Scrimgeour
Date: Mon Mar 20 20:43:46 2006
URL: kylescrim@hotmail.com
Message: Oshawa, ON, Canada.

Just checking up, haven't been to the site in a while. Interesting coincidence, I work for Canada Customs and the other day a passenger at Lester B. Pearson Airport, in Mississauga, came to my counter. A Graham Scrimgeour. I was rather busy to get too far into conversation with him and his wife, but I found this rather interesting afterwards.

From: karin yarmish
Date: Thu Mar 16 19:18:48 2006
URL: dyarmish@shaw.ca
Message: Prince George BC
Please note the the corrected e-mail. I made a mistake on my first message!
I have recently discovered that I have ancestors with the "Scrimgeour" name in Scotland. Do you know of a Helen Scrimgeour who was probably born around 1786. She married Thomas Aitken and I think they were from Falkirk. They had a son, Henry Scrimgeour Aitken born around 1806. I have just started looking into this line and I would appreciate any help you can give. Thank you very much.
Karin Yarmish

From: karin yarmish
Date: Wed Mar 15 21:50:52 2006
URL: djyarmish@shaw.ca
Message: Prince George BC

I have just discovered that I have a "Scrimgeour" in my family. Helen Scrimgeour married to a Thomas Aitken around 1806? Falkirk area of Scotland. They had a son Henry Scrimgeour Aitken born around 1806? Does anyone know anything about these people??? I would love to hear from you. Great website. Thanks.

From: Tricia
Date: Mon Mar 13 12:02:17 2006
URL: Tricia.Barnett@btinternet.com
Message: Sorry last message duplicated some text.
Blame the Copy & paste action :)

From: Tricia
Date: Mon Mar 13 11:03:35 2006
URL: tricia.barnett@btinternt.com
Message: Banbury England UK

My ggg grandmother was Margaret Scrymgeour who married Charles Johnston in Canongate Edinburgh 1810. Charles was in the 10th North British Militia as was Margaret's father.

Born in SCOTLAND - I currently live in ENGLAND
SCOTTISH SCRIMGEOUR

Does anyone have links to this Margaret Scrymgeour b 1770 - 1780 app.
married 1802 Edinburgh to Charles Johnston from Eastlothian.

They moved to Dunoon & Kilmun Argyll.
Margaret's father and husband were in 10th North British Militia around 1800.

Tricia

From: megan scrimger
Date: Wed Mar 8 12:55:25 2006
URL: ttlady.mslcs@hotmail.co.uk
Message: Arbroath, Scotland

Does my second name count????cant see the we my family spells its anywhere.... Am i a scrimger???

From: Juan-Marc
Date: Sun Feb 26 18:41:24 2006
URL: guano117@yahoo.co.uk
Message: Currently studying in Pietermaritzburg, South Africa

Does anyone know what our Crest really looks like. Cause on houseofnames.com they have one with a lion and on familynames.com they hav one that is totally different.

From: Jean
Date: Tue Jan 31 07:30:13 2006
URL:

Message: Just outside of Oslo Norway (no Scrimgeour connection)
Hi Val...found some info for you but thought I would post some here in case anyone else is looking for it or leads to more info. The names might be familiar to someone else. Your Peter Scrimgeour was first married 14 Mar 1836 to Margaret Worthington at Saint Peter, Bolton Le Moors, Lancashire, England and they had a least 2 children that I found James chr 24 May 1840 Wigan, Lancashire, England (according to 1851 census he was born in Barrow upon Soar Leicestersh) and Charlotte about 1842 Wigan.
He also had a Thomas Haslam with 2nd wife Helen who was 8 mths in 1851 probably died 1856.

From: Valdine Hernes
Date: Wed Jan 25 16:18:24 2006
URL: shernes"at"robin.no

Message: Greetings everyone from Stavanger, Norway. I have a problem with my family tree and hope someone will be able to help me. I am looking for my ggg grandfather - James Scrimgeour. I think he was married to an Ann. My gg grandfather was Peter Scrimgeour who was married to Helen Haslam in St. Helens, Lancashire in Oct. 1849. They had nine children including my g grandfather Robert Bisset who was born around 1860. Robert Bisset immigrated to Canada and died in Wpg., MB, Canada 02 Feb. 1910. On the censuses from 1871 and 1881, Peter's birth place was Brabourne, Lees, Kent and his occupation was mason. However, on his marriage cert., his occupation is listed as High Baliff. I think I have placed too much value on the fact that my great grandfather's middle name was Bisset because I have found a James and Ann Bisset but their son, Peter, was born in Scotland. I cannot find a James and Ann from Brabourne. Can anyone help me?

Robert Bisset's siblings are:

John b. 1852

Catherine Anne b. 1853

Donald b. 1857

Helen b. 1858 m.1894 T.M. Havelack

Alexander b. 1864

Margaret Milne b 1865 m. 1897 H. Anderton

Charles Taylor b. 1869 m. 1897 J. Litherland

Jessie b. 1871

Thanks for taking the time reading this and I truly hope someone can help me or perhaps has the same problem.
Best wishes Valdine

From: michael scriminger
Date: Fri Jan 6 00:47:47 2006
URL: mscrimingerattwcnny.rr.com
Message: Canton, NY USA

my wife and I have been researching our genealogy for about three years and still have yet to trace my great-grandparents: Mathew John and Matilda Canning Schriminger, we believe they were born around 1827. We have found so many records of their children in the US and there are many variations of spellings used. OF their 7 children (all born in Antrim County Ireland): Maggie, Thomas, George, Archie, Elizabeth, Matthew, and Nellie they spelled their last name in the following ways: Scrimanger, Schriminger, Scriminger, and Scrimgeour. We thank you for your site it's been helpful as we continue on our search. And we hope to one day close the link between Mathew and the other Scriminger's/Scrimgeour's.

From: keith scrimgeour
Date: Wed Dec 28 17:29:21 2005
URL: keith_scrimgeour@yahoo.ca
Message:

Sarnia, ontario.canada.

Just looking for the new tartans,also would like to here from the rest of you.

From: paula scrimgeour
Date: Tue Nov 22 22:26:47 2005
URL: me"at"hotmail.com
Message: i live in Newcastle, England, in a small seaside village called Amble.

i have really liked read over all this new information about our history and i very much hope that the rest of you scrimies will email me. hope you all like the site as much as me, hope also to hear from you all. paula xxx. p.s. if any one of you known any web sites which sell any scrimgeour objects etc please can you email me back, thanks.

From: Rischel Scrimgeour Granquist
Date: Wed Nov 16 23:40:19 2005
URL: ricbiscuits"at"comcast.net
Message: Seattle Washington USA
Hello Scrimgeours! I'm the daughter of Lee R. Scrimgeour who is son of James Scrimgeour who came to Seattle from Scotland. Haven't really started the family tree thing yet so that's as much as I know. My husband is interested in whether or not the Scrimgeours support a specific football team in Scotland.

From: jeff
Date: Fri Nov 11 00:51:26 2005

URL: jpallister at stps.on.ca

Message: St Thomas, ON, CA

I am trying to trace my Scrimgeour roots. My mother is Patricia her father is Roy Lionel whose father was Reginal and they were from the Stratford, ON area. Just wondering if anyone can help with the next step.
PS. Great site

From: Sandra Scrimgeour

Date: Fri Nov 4 22:46:09 2005

URL: sandiechristie"at"blueyonder.co.uk

Message: Born and Bred Methven,Perthshire, Moved a whopping 6 miles into the Fair City of Perth.

From: James Scrimgeour

Date: Tue Sep 6 09:31:27 2005

URL: lscrim"at"omninet.net.au

Message: Albany, Western Australia

I am 11 years old and have a class project on the history of "Scrimgeours". I am very pleased to have my own web-site. My mum went to Scotland in 1985 and bought a book about Scrimgeours and some tartan. My pop (Raymond James Scrimgeour)has the book. We will see him in the holidays and I will get to read all about us.

From: David

Date: Thu Aug 25 04:14:47 2005

URL: dscriminator'at'hotmail.com

Message: New Zealand but currently in CHile on exchange..

Just wanted to sign the book haha.. Quite interested to find out more of the geneology etc. Also found out a few weeks back that theres a Scrimgeour in the new HARRY Potter book.. Anyway espero que todos estan bien!!

From: Lisa Scrimmager

Date: Wed Jul 20 08:53:42 2005

URL: lisa.scrimmager"at"gmail.com

Message: sydney australia

just noticed some relatives down the page. Hi Rose and hi john i am Andy (andrew scrimmager's eldest daughter)

From: Lisa Scrimmager
Date: Wed Jul 20 08:49:13 2005
URL: lisa.scrimmager"at"gmail.com
Message: Sydney, Australia

Hi i live in sydney australia, and as far as i know there are only 6 Scrimmaggers (with that spelling) here. I am interested to know if anyone knows of any others with this spelling.

From: Victor
Date: Sun Jul 17 15:27:04 2005
URL: victor123@yahoo.com
Message: I found this site by accident, but I'm glad I did. I have been using the Internet for several years and so many sites are confusing, but not yours. Thanks for the chance to sign your guestbook. It's nice to see how many people stopped by and posted a message.
<http://air.searcheng.com/discount-airfare-australia.html>

From: Andreas
Date: Sat Jul 16 03:38:01 2005
URL:
Message: Nice little site you got here. I would Imagine that the release of the Half-blood prince will make your hit counter fly.

From: Steven Gunn-Scrimgeour
Date: Wed Jun 29 09:54:34 2005
URL: info"at"beadschool.co.za
Message: Hi there again, upon further browsing of the site i found the following obituary in the 1999 clan book:

"I have also received the obituary of Mary Scrimgeour, nee Laurie, who was born in Frinton in 1924 and grew up on a farm in Bures. She met her husband Colin in South Africa and they returned to England in 1959. He died in December in Hadleigh, Suffolk.3"

Colin was my Granfather, who was origionally married to my grandmother Mary Scott (now residing in Perth.) He later married Mary Luarie, who became my step-grandmother. Their lives, and the lives of my family are well documented in a book Mary wrote before her death entitled 'Single to Durban.' Anyone who is interested can contact me for copy info.

From: Steven Gunn-Scrimgeour
Date: Wed Jun 29 09:34:15 2005
URL: info"at"beadschool.co.za

Message: Currently staying in Johannesburg, South Africa.

From: Sue Schrimsher Vance

Date: Wed May 18 18:38:12 2005

URL: bubbavanceat.aol.co,

Message: Spring, TX, USA

Am visiting UK/Scotland in July and I'm interested in visiting locations related to Scrimgeours.

From: Robert Scrimgeour

Date: Wed Mar 30 22:51:11 2005

URL:

Message: Edinburgh, Scotland

Nice Website. The most unique name in Scottish History. "The Standard Bearers for Scotland".

From: Lee Scyrmgeour

Date: Thu Feb 17 23:57:49 2005

URL: \(nameabove\)@yahoo.co.uk@yahoo.co.uk)

Message: scarborough, north yorkshire

Nice site, very useful

From: Laura Scrimgeour

Date: Thu Jan 13 18:38:22 2005

URL: laura.scrimgeour@colorado.edu

Message: Boulder, CO, USA

This webpage is awesome! Thank you so much for all of the cool information!!!!

From: Ronald

Date: Thu Jan 13 15:07:13 2005

URL: ronald@pict-photography.com

Message: Dundee, Scotland

Guests and members might be interested in my website of Scottish landscapes www.pict-photography.com
FREE wallpapers on site

From: Andrew Schrimsher

Date: Tue Jan 11 02:48:25 2005

URL: atschrimsher@mac.com

Message: Birmingham, Alabama

This is a very nice site. It provides a lot of insight into geneology, which is very helpful as I trace my family's root.

From: Debra Scrimgeour-Malley
Date: Mon Jan 10 23:28:44 2005
URL: debi_mmmathotmail.com
Message: London

I am searching for relatives of my late father James Scrimgeour Malley born 1955 in Leicester. Son of James Scrimgeour Malley, Grandson of Magaret Scott-Scrimgeour of Dundee. I am trying to put together a family tree.

From: Kimberley Scrimgeour
Date: Thu Dec 23 22:33:58 2004
URL: scrim19@hotmail.com
Message: I live in Bayfield Ontario, Canada

This is a great site I am glad I found it. Learned alot that I never new before.

From: Hazel Scrimgeour
Date: Wed Nov 17 20:54:53 2004
URL: scrimjon@icon.co.za
Message: Paarl, Cape Town South Africa

I was looking for a scrimgeour clan And I found one. I found a caryn Scrimgeour who also lives in South Africa Cape Town and we thought we were the only ones How Cool is That. Thanx 4 the web site Hazel ,Ian ,John ,lizabeth and Jean Scrimgeour

From: Liz Lawton
Date: Tue Nov 9 16:32:36 2004
URL: liz.lawton@ntlworld.com
Message: Leicester, England

I have some information about A Mr Edwin Scrimgeour a prohibitionist who defeated Winton Churchil at Dundee in 1922 from a newspaper cutting. My 2nd Gt Grandfather was a John Scrimgeour. His Daughter Catherine Scrimgeour Married Frederick Lewis (my gt Grand parents) in Dundee in 1878. The sam family had a grocers shop on the high street around 1900 in Dundee and there is a photograph on the dundecity.gov website

From: Tricia Barnett
Date: Fri Sep 24 22:38:09 2004
URL: tricia.barnett@btinternet.com
Message: Banbury England UK

My ggg grandmother was Margaret Scrymgeour who married Charles Johnston in Canongate Edinburgh 1810. Charles was in the 10th North British Militia as was Margaret's father.

Does anyone have links to this Margaret or indeed to a Janet Scrimgeour married to William Johnston who had a son Charles who died in 1857 Dunoon and Kilmun Scotland. Any help appreciated.
Tricia

From: Nardia Scrimgeour
Date: Wed Sep 15 01:43:54 2004
URL: nardiascrimgeour@yahoo.co.nz
Message: Taupo, New Zealand

Looking for James Frances Scrimgeour 1st family tree and also for other family members in New Zealand

From: Nardia Scrimgeour
Date: Wed Sep 15 02:50:13 2004
URL: nardiascrimgeour@yahoo.co.nz
Message: New Zealand

From: Paul Fawcett
Date: Sun Aug 29 16:07:49 2004
URL: paulsue@clerken-well.freeserve.co.uk
Message: Cambridgeshire, England

I am trying to trace Alastair D K Scrimgeour who was born in London in 1958 with a sister Clair born in 1960 and whose mother was Anne Fawcett. Please email if you can help.

From: Ann Helen Andersson Lindroos
Date: Wed Aug 25 07:23:06 2004
URL: ann-helen.lindroos@kfz.se
Message: I live at Wamsta Farm, region of Jaemtland, Sweden.

I cannot call myself a Scrymgeour, but I have ancestors from the following clans in the 17th Century: Scrymgeour, Wedderburn, Erskine, Duncan. Does anyone have information about Helena Scrymgeour of Diddop? She was married to Robert Clerck and had a son, Andreas Clerck, born in about 1570. Thankful for any information! Best greetings from a sunny and warm Jaemtland to all Scrymgeours - even if we are related in a very distant way!

From: Jordan Scrimsher
Date: Mon Aug 23 22:27:54 2004
URL: ZOEGIRL4@bellsouth.net
Message: I live in Tennessee in the U.S.

I have recently learned that of one of my ancestors, a Sir Arthur Skremgeour. However, I haven't been able to find anything out about him other than that he had two sons whose names were John and Hezekiah Skremgeour. If anyone has any information please let me know. Thank you very much!!!

From: atholl scrimgeour
Date: Tue Aug 17 00:14:34 2004
URL: scrimy@sympatico.ca
Message: brampton ontario canada
 I WAS BROUGHT UP IN ERROL PERTHSHIRE SCOTLAND AND MOVED TO CANADA IN 1966. IF ANY OF MY OLD FRIENDS REAR THIS PLEASE GET IN TOUCH

From: caryn scrimgeour
Date: Sat Aug 14 09:47:00 2004
URL: caryn"at"hotmail.com
Message: Cape Town, South Africa

I will be visiting Scotland for the first time in September and can't wait to be in a place where my surname will actually be pronounceable to at least some people! Any tips on what to look out for and where I could find relevant objects of interest would be much appreciated.

From: Bill Scrimgeour
Date: Sat Jul 24 03:33:01 2004
URL: billscrimgeour"at"yahoo.com
Message: Singapore

For those Scrimgeour's not aware, and researching their ancestors, an interesting array of names is now appearing in www.genesreunited.co.uk. Registration is free - simply your email address and password. If you wish to link family trees or review other names there is a small annual on-line charge of GBP 7.50 Genesreunited is connected to Friendsreunited and threatens to take off in much the same way. The more the Scrimgeours make use of the facility the better it will be.

Any other interesting sites anyone else knows about?

Happy hunting!

From: leslie mcguire/scrimger
Date: Fri Jul 2 19:18:38 2004
URL:
Message: Ann Arbor, Michigan, USA

maternal grandmother was Pansey Scrimger, Clare Co., Michigan

From: Brenda Cooper
Date: Thu Apr 15 13:06:38 2004
URL: Brenda_cooper@yahoo.com.au
Message: Sydney, Australia

Scrimgeour was my maiden name. My father was Robert Scrimgeour, he died in Sydney in 1986 aged 85. His father also Robert came from Dundee with his brother David from Scotland as young boys on the tall sailing ships and settled in Sydney. Robert Snr married Lydia and they had 3 children. I have an old photo album that was given to me by my father containing lots of photos taken in Dundee but unfortunately there are no names attached to any of the people. My father visited Dundee during the War and met up with a cousin of his who was blind. Does anyone know of him? What a great website. There has been so much work put into it.

From: Peter Robert Wedderburn Nicol
Date: Sat Apr 3 14:23:38 2004
URL: wedcol@bigpond.com
Message: Queensland, Australia.

With Wedderburn and Scrimgeour ancestors, I have a double interest. Margaret Wedderburn married "George Nicol of Arthurstone and Camno" in the late 1700's and James Nicol married Barbara Scrimgeour at Inchtute in 1676. Peter James Nicol (a son of George & Margaret) came to Moreton Bay (Brisbane) to be druggist and admin. of the Military Hospital in 1840. Late he and his brother (Henry) fornded a sheep run of 25,000 acres and called it "Ballindean" after the Wedderburn estate at Inchtute. I have been trying to attend the AGM for about ten years, but something always seems to pop up and prevent it. But I shall suprise one and all one year, as it will happen!
Regards to all. Peter R W Nicol

From: William (Bill) H. Scrymgeour

Date: Sun Mar 28 02:38:52 2004

URL: whs"at" Allstream.net.

Message: I am 74 yrs old still self employed. But never knew too much about my father - William Anderson Scrymgeour. He and his brother James came from Scotland early 1900"s to join Royal Canadian Navy. Maybe some old navy vets know of this Scotty Cook/chef. Would be pleased to correspond with any Scrymgeour/Scrimgers, etc. etc.

From: Tricia

Date: Thu Mar 18 15:59:18 2004

URL: tricia_barnett"at"btinternet.com

Message: Scottish but living in England

Searching for anyone with info on Marriages of Scrimgeour to Johnston late 1700s. Areas Argyll Greenock and Edinburgh Scotland

From: Alex Scrimgeour

Date: Mon Mar 8 14:33:51 2004

URL: doggmanexataol.com

Message: Perth Scotland h i came across this ste when i typed "scrimgeor" into the google search engine im 21 from scotland and id love to hear from any pther scimgeours out ther so dont hesitate to get in touch

From: Valdine Hernes

Date: Sat Mar 6 18:10:54 2004

URL: shernes"at"robin.no

Message: Stavanger, Norway

Greetings from the only clan member in Norway. Exciting to read messages from so many other clan members. I was born in Wpg., Canada and met a Norwegian pilot doing his training at Gimli, MB. So, here I am, in Norway. Have always been proud of being a Scrymgeour.

From: james scrimgeour

Date: Wed Feb 11 22:24:15 2004

URL: @btopenworld.com

Message: 14st thomas court,the butts,coventry,cv1 3gh,united kingdom. this is my first time on this site,my relatives come from dundee it would be great if someone new any of them,donald is my dad his brothers are john,alec,angus,they lived on albert st above the albert pub,hope to hear from someone in the near future jimmy

From: Mark Scrimgeour
Date: Wed Feb 11 00:43:25 2004
URL: mark_scrimgeour@hotmail.com
Message: London Ontario Canada

Hi there fellow Scrimgeours glad to sign the guest book.

From: Amanda Ashley Scrimgeour
Date: Mon Feb 9 19:14:39 2004
URL: amandascrimgeour@hotmail.com
Message: Maugerville, New Brunswick, Canada

Hey, this is a sweet site, very interesting to see that there are so many Scrimgeour's (spelt in many different ways) I was catching for my team at a softball tournament I was competing in and the announcer said "Up to bad now, Jennifer Scrymgeour from Ontario" it totally shocked me 4 years ago, I had no idea - since then we have run into each other at 3 seperate tournaments across Canada. Great site - very interesting!

From: Cherylle Thurling
Date: Wed Jan 28 06:05:23 2004
URL: me at hotmail
Message: Queensland Australia.
I am the Great by 2 granddaughter of Alexander (b.1822/3) Scrimgeour and Henrietta Ann Sophia Dow (b.1825) Morrison (their parents being John Scrimgeour and Janet McGregor and William Morrison and Christian Ried) Henrietta and Alexander were married in Monzie Scotland, and left for Australia with two children Janet and William (2 others died in Scotland)in the 1850's.
Any connection to siblings would be gratly appreciated.

An excellent sight, come across by accident. Keep up the good work.

From: Marina Keeping
Date: Sat Jan 3 16:04:43 2004
URL: j.keeping@ns.sympatico.ca
Message: Currently I live in Nova Scotia. Originally I'm from Prince Edward Island.

My great-aunt, Georgie Scrimgeour is the wife of Stuart Scrimgeour. Uncle Stuart died in May, 1961 while living in Charlottetown, PEI Canada. I would be interested in making a connection to his family to share with my aunt who will be 100 years old in March 2004. Any help would be much appreciated.

Thanks!
Marina

From: d scrimgeour
Date: Wed Dec 31 17:20:42 2003
URL:
Message: highland perthshire

i am the granddaughter of Donald (Donny) and the late Elizabeth (Letty) Scrimgeour. My Grandmother and grandfather between them had seven children contributing to a grand total of 19 grandchildren. So we are still trying to maintain the quantity of our name in these parts!!!! i'd just like to say that its really quite amazing how many scrimgeours there are all over the world, i didnt realise just how wide spread we are!!!

From: Catherine Geddes
Date: Sun Dec 7 09:37:49 2003
URL: cath_geddes@hotmail.com
Message: Dunedin, New Zealand.

I'm the Granddaughter of Harry and Claire Scrimgeour and the Sister of Scott Scrimgeour. (Posted a message here too) Had to smile when I read his message, as it is nice to know that he is still around. (No news is good news with him lol.)

From: Brent Scrimgeour
Date: Sat Nov 15 18:45:09 2003
URL: bscrimgeour@wightman.ca
Message: Blyth,Ontario CANADA

I am the son of Don Scrimgeour and grandson of Everett Scrimgeour. Everett is the son of Lorne and Emma Scrimgeour.

Don has been in the grocery business for 30 years and I am hoping to keep it in the family for another 30.
Anyone who has a chance to visit us be sure to drop in.
PROUD TO BE A SCRIMGEOUR! see ya!

From: MCPO Gordon W. Farrell USN (Ret.)
Date: Fri Nov 14 15:41:54 2003
URL: litebrigade@gamewood.net
Message: Gretna, Virginia, USA

I am the Grandson of Collin Wallace Scrymgeour. He lived in up-state New York and also spent time on a farm in Ontario, Canada. I am not sure where he was born. His Daughter was Doris Arla Scrymgeour (farrell) My Mum. I know very little about my Grandfather or his immediate family. If anyone can shed some light on this mystery, please get in touch. I can also be reached at work; "farrellg@hargrave.edu" Ya'll have a fined day. MCPO/gwf

From: dominic scrimger
Date: Fri Nov 14 11:32:14 2003
URL: dscrimger@hotmail.com
Message: washington england. nice site just what i was looking for

From: Rebecca Jean Scrymgeour
Date: Thu Oct 23 23:04:23 2003
URL: franklarsen@comcast.net
Message: I live in Washington State.

I have been doing genealogy for a while but am stuck on how to find out when my ancestors immigrated from Scotland to America. My grandfather is Colin Wallace Scrymgeour born in upstate New York or Canada in 1893. His father is William A. (Albert??) Scrymgeour, the 1880 New York census records indicate he was from Canada or Scotland (don't know which for sure - that's where I get stuck.) I have not had any luck so far getting any other records. Can anyone help me?

From: Arlene Lyon Scrimgeour
Date: Sun Oct 19 20:41:11 2003
URL: Katz306408097@aol.com
Message: Irvine,Ayrshire,Scotland

Would like to find out more of my families history this is my maiden name and having an unusual name would like to find out more about it. thank you to whomever reads this message

From: ian scrimgeour
Date: Sat Oct 18 16:31:41 2003
URL: <http://uk.geocities.com/ianscrimgeour/index.html>
Message: Dundee, Scotland

hi to all, looking for any information on ann kreuzberger neescrimgeour who married john j kreuzberger and moved to louisanna in the late 60's early 70's

From: Gavin scrimgeour
Date: Tue Oct 7 03:36:45 2003
URL: scrim974@shaw.com
Message: Edmonton Alberta Canada.
Hi to all Scrimgeours out there.

From: Hayden Young
Date: Sat Sep 13 05:30:15 2003
URL: hades_down_under@hotmail.com
Message: Dunedin New Zealand

Just waisting time online and amazed to find so much about my ancestry (mothers side) I am the Grandson of Dennis and Annie Scrimgore, they moved to NZ from England.

From: brian scrimgeour
Date: Wed Sep 10 00:45:22 2003
URL: Briscrim@aol.com
Message: cottingham,east riding of yorkshire

From: James Scrimgeour
Date: Tue Sep 2 00:19:48 2003
URL: scrim1977@hotmail.com
Message: Blackpool England

Searching on google under scrimgeour and found this web site. Interesting web site. Will keep browsing!

From: robert scrimgeour
Date: Mon Sep 1 06:44:13 2003
URL: scrimyrules@yahoo.co.uk Message: scackleton,n.yorks,england.currently queenstown ,n.z.

hi there, was just checking this site. i am travelling around n.z and meeting a few scrimgeours. this site is cool, was looking at the photo gallery saw picture of me in 1984!!!.

From: John Scrimmager
Date: Sat Aug 16 04:38:48 2003
URL: pfam@infogen.net.nz
Message: New Zealand. My parents names were Andrew Scrimmager and Mary Ellen Scrimmager(Ne Dulop) they moved to NZ from Ireland in 1911 but both thier familys were originaly from Scotland

From: Lynda Buxton
Date: Mon Aug 4 22:04:26 2003
URL: llyndanz@hotmail.com
Message: New Zealand

My cousin pointed me towards this website. Her father and my grandmother are Scrimmagers/Scrimgeours. Great site!

From: Eddie A. Glaster III
Date: Fri Jun 20 19:44:57 2003
URL: e.glaster@t-online.de
Message: American living in Germany.

I came across your site while searching for geneology information. I would like to learn more about the connection between the Scrimgeour Clan and Glaster. The site is really fanatastic.

Eddie

From: Kathie Scrimgeour
Date: Wed Jun 11 18:26:55 2003
URL: kjscrim@attbi.com
Message: For anyone who is interested in a listserv for the Scrimgeour Clan, I have set one up and you can visit it at:<http://groups.yahoo.com/group/ScrimgeourClan>
This is a listserv that people can post messages that will go out to all members who have signed on. I hope everyone can sign on, the more the merrier! This will give those doing genealogy, or planning parties, to contact everyone live!
If you have questions please contact me at kjscrim@attbi.com

From: Emory Ediger
Date: Fri May 2 22:37:14 2003
URL: ediger333@hotmail.com
Message: I am looking for one or all of three brothers who lived as teenagers in the Salem, Oregon area. The three brothers' names are Andrew, Paul and Phillip. I would like very much to contact them since they were by boyhood buddies.
Thank you

From: Scott Scrimgeour
Date: Fri May 2 13:42:39 2003
URL: scptt_scrimgeour@hotmail.com Message: Born in Christchurch New Zealand (grandson of Harry Scrimgeour). Currently living in London - doing the traditional OE.

Interesting website - great for someone who's keen to learn.

From: Ian Scrimgeour
Date: Thu Apr 17 20:38:02 2003
URL: <http://ianscrimgeour.coms.ph>
Message: I have recently moved from Florida back to Sarnia, I hope everyone is doing well. Enjoyed the pics

From: Lisa Scrimmager
Date: Sun Mar 2 22:04:36 2003
URL:
Message: Sydney, Australia

Sorry, last message did not work. I am interested

From: Rosemary Scrimmager
Date: Sun Mar 2 09:42:02 2003
URL: Roseallmary@yahoo.com
Message: New Zealand
This is a great place!, MY father over the years has mentioned things about our ancestry, he is very proud of the family name, sadly now I am ready to listen (older and wiser)he has had a stroke and cant talk.
I am pleased to pass this on to my own children.Its exciting, like coming home learning all this...

From: Nina Danielsson
Date: Tue Feb 11 17:15:30 2003
URL: n84n@hotmail.com
Message: I live in sweden, stockholm.

Helena Scrimgeour is a relative to me, she lived in the beginning of 1500 century.

From: David John Scrimgeour
Date: Wed Feb 5 12:54:52 2003
URL: david.scrimgeour@wspgroup.com
Message: I live in Fenham, 1 mile outside Newcastle upon Tyne

A very interesting website! I was amazed to see the badge which is (obviously) exactly the same as the one on my heraldry plaque. I didn't realise there were quite so many of us about!

From: Michael Skrimager
Date: Wed Jan 22 19:57:57 2003
URL: houseofvintage1@aol.com
Message: Collinsville, Oklahoma

I have been researching my geneology for some time and would like to thank you for your site. It has helped me immensely.

From: Graham Pollock
Date: Fri Jan 17 20:13:02 2003
URL: graham_pollock@agilent.com
Message: Folsom, CA

I came across your sight whilst trying to find out more about Kilneuir Church. I'm an ex-pat Scot who used to vist the area frequently whilst cycling and I've always wondered about the history of the ruin.

Has the Kilneuir Church Project got any further ? - I would love to see some work done to protect the sight.

From: Graham Scrimgeour
Date: Mon Jan 6 22:53:39 2003
URL: <http://scrimgeourclan.org.uk>
Message: New guestbook - now operational!

I look forward to hearing from you all.
